For Public Information

The Fiji Human Rights Commission has received a letter from publishers of the Fiji Times, Communications Fiji Limited, Fiji TV, and the Fiji Sun that they will not take part in the Commission's Media Inquiry proposed for next week.

The Commission will inform the consultant accordingly.

The Commission hopes that the publishers who will not take part will not prevent their staff from expressing their views to the consultant.

Many journalists have expressed their intention to make submissions to the Inquiry.

The Fiji Times, Communications Fiji Ltd, Fiji TV and Fiji Sun will miss a golden opportunity to have their views heard in the Inquiry.
